

South side Guelph barn comes down with care

GUELPH– Mennonite barn “disassemblers” from near Elmira carefully take apart the 170-year-old barn on Harts Lane West on Tuesday morning.

With all the structural pieces numbered, the barn is planned to be moved and reassembled in another location in the future.

The historic farm property is to be developed as a residential area by Guelph’s Terra View Homes.

editor@guelphmercury.com

Deconstruction of Harts Lane barn

Chris Seto, Mercury staff